What is Psychology of approaching a girl

No matter where you are :

- Interview
- Mall
- Gym
- Job
- College or any other place

you should initiate a conversation by saying a simple Hi.

Hi!

Hi is like an ultimate Ice breaker which shows Confidence.

What to say afterwards? Here's the most trickiest part

Hi is always followed by the INTENTION to approach. You need to clarify why are you approaching her?

- Did you find her Cute? say that...
- You were just curious about her/her looks or something she's wearing? say that...
- You are just trying to socialize? say that...
- You find her hot? say that...

Set intentions

Preferably in a clear and unambiguous way that leaves no room for your intent to be mistaken.

Bonus points for graciously handling the possibility of rejection and double bonus points for the courage it takes to communicate that message.

Example:- When in Gym:-

- Hi, I saw you doing that particular Exercise ,I'm just curious which body part is it for?
 - I really love your muscles or intensity with which you workout :)
 - Hi, What's your Name? After she tells her Name...Nice to meet you & comment on something she's wearing or what you noticed genuinely about her Jokingly.
- (Ex*: You inspire me a lot, the way you workout with so much intensity 😊)

Once you are able to open the Conversation
(with or without a Compliment),

You need to carry the conversation by asking a fun question or passing a funny comment (Best Tip to make a girl laugh is start laughing on your own Joke - Women love men who are weird & Jolly)

Art of Compliments:

Example:-

While I was thinking of approaching you, I thought to myself Iss ladhki me kitna attitude hoga yaar but you seem so nice :)

From there, an instant spark can be built. There can be 100s of Permutations and Combinations of how & where you meet a girl but you have the basic idea Now 😊

Apart from this, there are few more things which can help you to build the spark faster.

1. Women love being complimented..

A short, impactful, and genuine compliment gives a good impression that you truly appreciate what she wears or does.

2. Be confident

Smiling is highly correlated with whether or not a person is perceived as likable.

Women are attracted to guys with strong willpower who follow through on their decisions & express confidence.

Personality along with Humour is a killer combination, use it at your best.

3. Good Grooming Habits.

Your persona needs to exude your accomplishments without uttering a word. This impeccable look needs to be obvious, from well-cut hair on your head to shoes that are polished and align with the rest of your image.

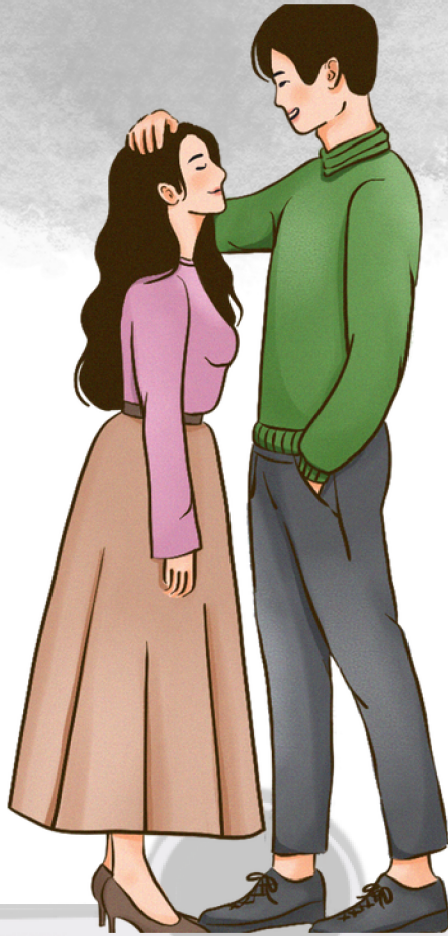

Never Go out anywhere without doing a Minimum level Grooming & Dress up. You don't know where you might meet your Dream Girl 😊

4.Be Curious

Posing interesting open-ended questions can help you know each other well and keep the conversation alive.

5. Romantically Young

Women Love guys who are romantic but also aren't afraid to Pull her legs to playfully tease her. Don't be scared of her & intentionally show your Romantic and Playful side to her from the start itself.

Hope you use this to practice building spark wherever and whenever you can.

Thank You
