

INSTANT SPARK BUILDER

in online meeting..

Approaching a Girl Online is Tricky because most of the Pretty girls have their Instagrams Filled with DMs & Men throwing Themselves on them

Thus, you need to differentiate yourself from the rest of the Herd of Typical Nice Guys

Unlike an Offline approach, Online approach is not as simple as saying HI ...You need to start a conversation with some Thought Proving Comment or Question

NEW POST

Example*: If you like a girl on Instagram and she posted something on her story about a Quote or Book or something Intelligent - You can reply by either giving your own analysis/understanding of that or asking further questions from her on that

Like*:- Hey, I too believe the same thing it's so funny most people just can't understand the depth of how important_____ (this is) Whatever she wrote

This Opens up the gateway to further Conversation and also gets the girl linking Intelligence with you 😊

Please Note*: Your Comment shouldn't be Negative or Too against her Opinion otherwise you can't create Rapport with her

So, to Instantly Build the Spark and also Continue that Spark - You need to Escalate the Conversation from Online Platform to WhatsApp or Phonecall and Finally Asking her out on a Date

Example*:-

Hey, it has been so awesome to Chit Chat with you and I find you really interesting - I would love to talk to you Over call or,

Let's Connect over WhatsApp?

If she's Interested great, if not then stop wasting your time and move ahead to another girl

Here are few more insights which can help you to escalate your game.

5 MISTAKES THAT GUYS MAKE ON TINDER

1.STRONG INTENTIONS

The Intention behind Approaching a Girl shouldn't be Chit Chatting with her Online but to get her OFF the Platform as soon as possible

Example: Most guys keep Chit Chatting with a girl they met online for Months and finally she stops responding

This is because Women like Escalation and Expanding the energy more and more

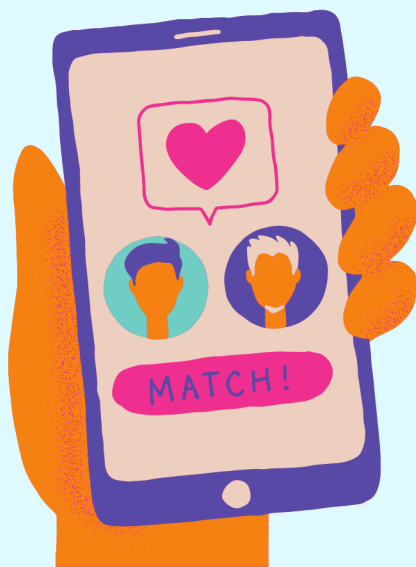

Men like Keeping things where they are so they Fear they don't lose what they have

Because of this Scarcity Mindset (Which Women easily sense), women get Turned off after a While (Unless she's Bold enough to ask the Number herself)

2.TALK LIKE A WINNER

Most women want to converse with a man who seems solid in his self-worth and knows his reason for being there. Avoid whispering quietly or in a high-pitched nervous tone. Instead, speak to her with conviction by:

- Using a lower voice (that's still within your appropriate vocal range)
- Maintaining a moderate volume
- Convey, don't ask. Try to avoid using the question inflection accidentally on a statement. So say, "My name is ___." Not "My name is ___?"

3.MATCH AND MIRROR HER ENERGY

Shy girls often have a timid, low energy attitude.

Make a note and plan your moves accordingly. If you come across as a high energy alpha personality, you can very well forget moving ahead with her. But if a girl is full of energy and you come up as a reserved person, she might soon get bored and look for some other guy to have a conversation with.

4.ESCALATION IS MUST

Most guys keep on focusing on Chit Chatting and naturally the Girl gets bored of your Jokes and Conversations

That calls for Escalation before she reaches to that point from Online Platform to Number to Calling to Dating etc.

If you really have a crush on this person, start asking questions that show you're thinking about them: Where do they get their artistic eye? What inspires them to post? Or if they are pursuing a blogger-styled account, ask what their favorite brunch in the city is.

Hope you use this to practice building spark wherever and whenever you can.

You*
